

Inspiration color

The target group is people who love health and are looking for a convenient way to track their activities, using modern and trendy designs that are attractive and stimulating, and promote a lively lifestyle.

This is a dark and neutral color that can be used to create contrast and balance in the design. It can be associated with elegance, sophistication, and professionalism, making it suitable for websites that aim to convey a sense of seriousness, authority, or expertise.

This is a very light and neutral color that could be used as a background color to create a clean and minimalist look. It can be soothing and calming, making it suitable for websites that aim to convey a sense of tranquility, simplicity, or purity.

This is a bright and vibrant red color that could be used to create a strong visual impact and grab the viewer's attention. It can be associated with passion, energy, and urgency, making it suitable for websites that aim to convey a sense of excitement, action, or urgency.

